CONSTRUCTION MANAGER OF THE YEAR AWARDS

29TH SEPTEMBER 2021 | CMYA.CO.UK

The Construction Manager of the Year Awards (CMYA) celebrate the achievements of those who inspire, lead and enable the very best delivery of a project and produce buildings that have a positive impact on those who use them.

These unique awards were initiated in 1978 by the Chartered Institute of Building (CIOB). During this time, CMYA has been showcasing incredible talent and highlighting the abilities of Construction Managers across the UK every year. An in-depth judging process ensures that the calibre of winners is consistently high, and as a result, the awards have a reputation for identifying the future leaders in the construction industry.

Our sponsorship packages are crafted specifically to meet your needs in the best possible way, whether the event is held online or at the Grosvenor House Hotel in London.

If you make it to the awards ceremony, that alone is a great achievement and if you are fortunate enough to take home a medal, it really is life changing.

Matt Crookes, CMYA finalist

This is a relatively small industry. Getting CMYA recognition definitely raises your profile. It's great to have on your CV and is valued by employers.

Julia Howard MCIQB, CMYA finalist

As a CMYA judge, it is an honour and a privilege to spend time with some remarkable people, delivering remarkable projects.

Gavin Heaphy MCIQB, CMYA judge

Revel in your achievement as it really is a pinnacle of your career. Do not be shy in using your success as recognition of you and your team's capability in demonstrating true excellence in construction.

Dennis Wilson, 2015 CMYA winner
